

Open letter to those who peeled clementines

All of you who will keep obeying "you know who" will end up in Gehenna (Matthew 6:24 = Luke 16:13; Matthew 23:33; John 3:5, in which "Father" means God / Pure Consciousness, not the one who taught you how to fish salmons; Revelation 21:1-8, in which you will notice the word "cowards"; Revelation 18:4, in which "my people" means anyone with even a tiny bit of conscience – and no, pressing olive oil, even if you are among the few ones who don't enjoy it, doesn't make you wise and humble, stupid!).

Only those of you who will DISOBEY, even if it means RISKING THEIR LIVES (Matthew 10:24-39) will awaken / go to Heaven so, if you were a millionth as smart as you think you are, you wouldn't wait for the bastards you obey to allow you to come and see me – which they will end up doing only out of trying to prevent you from being freed! – because it will then become way more difficult to awaken since you won't be able to disobey any more which, for you, is the most efficient spiritual practice, even more so than spending eight hours a day in deep meditation at the feet of the grandest spiritual master ever, plus, in subsequent lives, you will have no one to help you and to warn you, which will most likely cause you to be tortured, just like I was many many times and just like I was again when a bunch of bastards pulled up my four wisdom teeth after paralyzing me with a curare derivative but without anesthetizing me, which you know where to look to check they indeed did... and, while you're at it, since the bastards who are on my back 24/7 keep lying to you about me and since you are stupid enough as to keep believing them just because they have sangria up to their chin while I remain nothing but a stupid macaque to you, why don't you look up the context in which I was said "longue et fine" then why don't you check I never knocked on those bastards' door plus I made it pretty clear I would never pick any "seven" to marry but, on the contrary, those of you who want the help of the one God / Pure Consciousness sent them to free them will have to choose me (Luke 4:18; At-Tawbah 9:60; Revelation 14:1-4, in which "virgins" stands for "25"). That's right! After those bastards will allow me to teach, only the "25" will awaken, if it weren't for the very few of you who will be smart enough as to follow my guidance soon enough and for long enough (Matthew 19:21 ≡ Mark 10:21 ≡ Luke 18:22). Yes, soon enough and for long enough (!) because, obviously, wearing a pair of stolen luxury shoes and giving them back after wearing them for 23 years is very different from never wearing those filthy stinky shoes in the first place, which implies giving back those stupid shoes you are stupid enough as to be so proud of after wearing them for even if only ten years will be far from enough to be forgiven! This is a fact a moderately smart seven year old kid would understand, not me judging you for doing as the Romans do... unless you are stupid enough as to consider despising you for claiming you are soooo superior to me when you don't even understand where your best interest lies is some sort of judgment, which would be all the more stupid that both Jesus and the Quran warn you your arrogance alone will prevent you from going to Heaven (Matthew 19:24 = Mark 10:25 = Luke 18:25 ≡ Al-A'raf 7:40)!

Oh, and by the way, those of you who were told it is in their DNA to remain stuck on the Earth plane forever ^(*) will indeed not access spiritual awakening – called "mukta" in the Veda" – but those who will unconditionally support my endeavor to teach plus help the poor and the oppressed will be granted moksha upon passing. They will also be granted two precious gifts:

- those of you who will show respect and gratitude will be treated well ("Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the smartest of those cheese soufflé devotees?")...
- just like Jesus did for your ancestors (John 4:14), God / Pure Consciousness will, by my intercession, change your taste for Irish coffee topped with whipped cream and sprinkled with crushed roasted hazel nuts for fresh water.

^(*) Truth is you won't stay on the Earth plane after Judgment Day for, again, you will be cast into Gehenna, which is different from Hell, in which no one stays for ever but only for as long as they crimes call for. Gehenna is a spiritual incinerator which burns forever but in which souls only stay for as long as it takes for them to be disposed of, which both the Bible and the Quran call "second death". It would actually be very unfortunate for you to be protected from the flames in a place where there is nothing but flames, not even a stupid pillow to rest your stupid heads on, because, out of excruciating boredom, you would end up beggin' your master to stop protecting you from the flames, to which he would answer "I can't, I promised!". That's right! This is how your master, who teaches you how to outsmart others, also outsmarts you, stupid! In case you still don't get it, which is unfortunately possible since you have proven to be totally and utterly unable to understand pretty simple things, whether or not the doctrine you have blind faith in – while claiming you are purely logical even though you have no proof your master can protect you from the flames! – is true, and unless you seriously review your stupid stubborn entitled attitude, you are in for serious trouble!

And since, after for three and a half years, I kept warning the stupid stubborn waders who keep thinking I'm a hippopotamus – which means I will end up drowning those morons in muddy water, just like the stupid handlers who were after Moses were engulfed in the Red Sea (yes, this is a metaphor, this is why historians never founder the place where Moses and his followers crossed the Red Sea) – of what would happen if they didn't stop lying about me plus, even after I put the two pages above online, those morons kept requesting me to do my part, as if I didn't do enough already and while it looks very much like a bunch of imbeciles keep being stupid enough as to believe I am reproaching them with fearing for their lives when I really feel for them and I am only trying to help them, let me make it clear

are not responsible for going to that party but for taking the reward which was distributed at the end of that stupid sulfur scented filthy party!
